Alpena, Michigan, January 3rd, 2011—Stephanie Loew and Amanda Beck were awarded with Alpena Alcona Area Credit Union’s 2010 Personal Achievement Award.

The Personal Achievement Award is given to any Alpena Alcona Area Credit Union employee who made a conscience effort towards improving themselves educationally over the past year. In order to win this prestigious award, an employee must dedicate their own time to achieve personal growth, such as by attending college classes, credit union-related conferences and seminars, and participating in credit union annual meetings and chapter functions. Along with recognition, the award is a cash prize and plaque. This year, the Credit Union decided to award 2 Personal Achievement Awards.

Selection of the recipient was completed by Donald J. Mills, President and CEO. “This year we had two fine candidates who were equally qualified to be the recipient of this year’s award. Both Stephanie and Amanda made tremendous progress in improving themselves educationally over the past year. I felt that they both deserved recognition for their efforts,” Mr. Mills stated.

Stephanie Loew is a teller at the Tawas Branch and Amanda Beck is a teller at the Oscoda Branch. Both have been with the Credit Union 1 ½ years.

The award was presented at Alpena Alcona Area Credit Union’s Board of Directors and Staff Christmas party, held at St. Anne’s Parish Center on Saturday, December 5th, 2010
