Alpena, MI, February 26, 2020 – Alpena Alcona Area Credit Union (AAACU) team members celebrated National Random Acts of Kindness Day by giving back to Hope Shores Alliance.

This year National Random Acts of Kindness Day fell on the same day as AAACU’s all staff training event. To honor the credit union philosophy of People Helping People, AAACU collected toiletries, clothing and cash donations from team members. Those items were then donated to Hope Shores Alliance, a community supported human service organizations providing free and confidential services to victims/survivors and their families of domestic and sexual violence.

“Upon learning Random Acts of Kindness Day fell on our corporate wide training day, Rose and I knew that we wanted to organize something to give back to the communities in which we serve. We came together as a team to donate many items on Hope Shores Alliance’s Wish List. I’m very proud and grateful to work with such a great group of teammates that came together to help make Random Acts of Kindness Day a little more special this year.” Stated Brittnee Dault, Human Resource Specialist.

Membership is available to individuals that reside, work, own property, attend school, or worship in the state of Michigan. AAACU has 9 locations: two in Alpena including the main branch, Atlanta, Ossineke, Tawas, Lincoln, a Tiger Branch in Alcona Community Schools, Oscoda, and the Owl’s Nest in Oscoda Area Schools. As of January 31, 2020, AAACU provides service to 29,587 members with total assets equal to $373,602,849.
